

August 17, 2006 Splash Premiere coming soon

The much anticipated video by Marshall Reid is finally upon us. "Splash!" featuring Jordan Sanchez, Josh Anderson, Mikey Burton, Dirty Dan, and Josh Jones should cause quite a ripple effect in the Northwest skate scene. These kids kill the spots. The video is scheduled to premiere Thursday, August 31, 2006 at the Showbox Theater in Seattle. Start time is expected to be around 9pm. 35 North Skateshop will play the All City Showdown video and announce the results. In case you didn't know what the All City Showdown was about, let me fill you in. It was a 5 hour street skating contest, involving one skater to one filmer, skate and film as many tricks as you can within that five hours. The winner gets $500 bucks cash money.

August 11, 2006 Toebock in Moses Lake

Team Toe made a surprise visit to Moses Lake on there way out to Spokane for todays BBQ/skate jam celebrating Spirit Skateshop's 6 year anniversary. Adam Crew, Mike Barker, Mike Rusczyk, Jarrad Saba, Ryan Stangland, Julien Quevado and friends all skated the MLSP. To learn more about Team Toe check out there website at <http://www.toebock.com/>. After, the park session I showed them a few ML spots.

The spots are disappearing quick, the park double set gone, alternative L ledges capped, bump sidewalk gap blocked whats a skater to do. Time to build. The back to school SALE is in full swing. Only a couple weeks of summer left then it's back to school. Ton's of new tee's, hoodies, and jeans from Emerica, eS, and Ipath.

July 27, 2006 New Videos

Well if you look over to the right you will find two new videos for your viewing pleasure. The water session was from the Midstate Skateshop 1 year anniversary camp out. Let see you get some skating while the lake is overflowing. I'm sure not everyone has a my space account, or maybe they do, but for those of you, like my self, who don't now you can see this commercial right here. Feel free to give us some feedback, so post your comments in our guestbook. Because of the great turnout for the BBQ/skatejam we're going to be doing another one sometime in late August. I'll post more info as soon as we set a date. Lots of new products should be coming in the next week or so. New DC, Ipath, Es, Emerica shoes and clothing, New Zoo York, ATM, and Listen decks on the way as well.

July 22, 2006 HOT, HOT, HOT 103 degrees its so HOT right now

MLSC sale going on as I write this: all womens tops 50% off, Mens boardshorts 20% off, wristbands 3 for $20, T-shirts 3 or more $15 each, all hoodies 30% off, plus tons more.

July 13, 2006 - Fallen Demo

Fallen Demo, Thursday July 13, at Innerspace Skatepark in Seattle, WA. Jamie Thomas, Chris Cole, Josh Harmony, and Tommy Sandoval should be there. If you've never witnessed Chris Cole in person I recommend that you go. He is insane. On Wednesday July 19 there will be a BBQ/skate jam starting at 6:00. All food is free so come out and enjoy.

July 1, 2006 - Midstate 1 year anniversary

Last weekend Midstate Skateshop, out of Yakima, WA, celebrated its one year anniversary. The Manik Team made an appearance with Mikey Burton, Josh Anderson, John Erickson and Eric Green killing the park. Yakima locals Ben and Bryce Neibur, Juliean, and Dennis Rose all represented tough for MidState. After the event a handful of family and friends, my self included, headed to the mountains to do a little camping and skating. The skate spot seemed unskateable due to water flowing through it, but that didn't stop the diehards. Eric Green, Bryce Neibur, Dennis Rose and Josh Mohs skated the ditch while the water raged by. It was definitely an amazing experience. The weather was beautiful and the camping was much needed. Well, I know I said it was hot last month, but this past week has been in the 100's. Too hot to do anything except stay inside where its cool. The new Manik boards are instock. Get these well there available, cause the boards are looking sick and are sure to move quick.

June 14, 2006 - Mild weather/Pitbull puppies for sale

I must say this summer is already starting to fly by. The weather has been pretty mild, with some rain here and there. So for the heat hasn't been to HOT. I'm sure its coming soon. The store recently got a makeover. We moved some things around and it looks real nice. The shoe wall has the biggest selection of shoes the store has ever seen. New shoes instock from Lakai, DC, and Ipath. In other news, my pitbull Lilly recenty had puppies. If anyone is interested in buying one, give me a call our stop by the store. The puppies will be 6 weeks old on Friday, and that means they're ready to go to a new home. We are asking $200 or make us an offer.

May 29, 2006 - MLSC 3 year anniversary skate jam

MLSC's 3 year anniversary came and went this last weekend. The skate jam and games of SKATE were intense. Skaters from the Spirit crew, Midstate crew, and the Moses Lake Skate Crew shredded the park and entertained the masses. In the 12 and under division it was Andre Moore taking 1st, Cameron Alvarado 2nd, and Sky Conway with 3rd place. In the 12 and up division Kenny Mclachlan from Spokane took 1st, Andrew "Squirrel" Packer 2nd, and Ricardo Marroquin with 3rd place. In the sponsored/ripper division Sam Henrickson came in 3rd place, Ben Carden from Spokane 2nd place, and Josh Mohs took 1st. Now I know its sounds strange, the guy who puts on the event wins the event, but let me tell you it was no easy battle. I had to play John Erickson in round 1, Vito Luppino from Midstate in round 2, Eddie Ramirez in round 3, and losing eventually to Ben Carden, who rips, and had to go through the losers bracket, just to come back around and play Ben again. I had to beat him twice just to win. In the first game we played skate on everything at the park, but in the second game we played on the the flat bar. Now if you're ever in Spokane or know Ben, his nickname is Flat Bar Ben. Ben's got tricks on the flat bar, but after 50 or so tricks I came through with the win with a switch smith grind. Ben rips and I gave him all the prizes. Nich Kunz took home prizes in the best trick contest. The best trick was a ledge box propped up on the flat bar. A pretty scary thing if you miss your trick and smash into the rail. Nich did ton's of tricks; 5050 kickflip out, 5050 frontside flip out, nosegrind, nosegrind shuvit the hardway, and back 5-0 to fakie. I also came through with some tricks; nosegrind to lipslide up and over, 5050 bigspin out, and crooks to fakie. The weather was beautiful and the product toss was great. Thanks goes out to all the sponsors that helped make this event possible. VOX, Zoo York, Manik, Ipath, Popwar, Bueno, Accel, Spirit, and Imperial Moition give yourselves a pat on the back. Thank You. Make sure you check out the Spirit Top Shop tour video. I was apart of the trip so you can bet there's some Mohs footy in there. Photos from the 3 Year Anniversary Skate Jam will be coming soon. Peace MOHS

May 3, 2006 - Spirit takes 3rd at Top Shop

Now I know I said I would make updates while on the road, but unfortunately I had computer difficulties. Anyways, I'm back now and here comes some news. First off, I got back on Sunday, and I was pretty worn out. I think today is the first day I'm feeling back to normal. Man road travel sure does take a toll on the body and soul. Straight worn out.

Enough about me and on to more important things, like the Spirit road trip. The Top Shop contest was off the hook. Everyone skated really good. Spirit Skateshop ended up walking away with 3rd place and an extra 250 bucks. To see team and individual results click here. Also, if you look over to the right you will find some photos from the trip. I'm hoping to get more photos and details up as soon as I can, but for now this is what you get. After the contest we skated Minneapolis. This is by far one of the best cities I've skated. There is stuff to skate every where. All you have to do is keep moving. Once, the security rolls out, it was off to a new spot before they could talk to you. The weather was good but the skating was better. Everyone got some good video clips. Stay tuned for a web tour video coming soon. Oh yeah, you can also read about the trip on the Spirit website. Everything must come to an end so after Minneapolis it was a long drive home. We did some site seeing at the Badlands in South Dakota, which I must say were amazing, and Mount Rushmore. I think we were the first to skate Mount Rushmore's flat bar. We also stayed in Bozeman, Montana with Chris Murphy and did some serious skating. Bozeman's got spots!!! Enough of this I'm getting tired. I'll try and get a full story put together later.

In the shop department, the store is looking really nice. We just got in a bunch of new gear. New Era hats from Fourstar, Chocolate, and Plan B. As well as a bunch of new Zoo York hats. New Chocolate decks, new Royal, Venture, and Indy trucks, and all the newest skate videos. Baker 3, Forecast, What If, Yeah Right, Hot Chocolate Tour are all instock on DVD and ready for your viewing pleasure. We've got Listen decks also on the way. Well thats enough for today. I've got to save some news for tomorrow. Peace MOHS

April 18, 2006 - New store fixture

The Spirit Yard Sale is over, the funds were raised, the van is rented, now it's time to roll. The trip starts tomorrow. Minnesota here we come. The shop recently purchased a new clothing fixture and I must say it makes the store look good. I'll try and get some photos of the store up when I get back. I should be posting news while out on the road so stay tuned. Peace MOHS If you want to find out more about the contest click here.

April 14, 2006 - Top Shop contest one week away

The deadline is nearing. The Top Shop contest is one week away. Does the Spirit Team have what it takes to be crowned Top Shop. With my help we may have a chance, but hopefully I won't have to skate. The Spirit Yard sale was a huge success last weekend, but don't forget it's this weekend also. Lots of great items for cheap. Don't miss out. Help support the trip. The shop has been getting full lately lots of new shoes. Stop in and pick up a pair today. Just in looks like MLSC should have DC shoes rolling in here in the next month or so. Keep you eyes peeled.

March 17, 2006 - Mohs gets food poisoning

Today sucks. I'm totally wrecked. I've got food poisoning or something. Let me tell you it was a rough night. Blown up out of both ends. Not fun. In other news the sun is out and the weather looks nice. To bad I'm to weak to skate. New shoes from Es, Emerica, and Etnies should be arriving next week. Also new ATM boards. Your going to have to give them a second chance because they've got new wood and its good. I've been skating it and it flips nice. Wish me better so that I can get back to ripping. JM
